KING PERMITS COUNCIL MEET IN SICK ROOM

Session Lasts Few Minutes Only—Slight Improvement in Condition

LONDON, Dec. 4.—The king was "less comfortable" tonight, according to the bulletin issued by his physicians. The announcement, issued at 8:30, said:

"As the result of the treatment, noted in the afternoon report, persists and as the king is rather less comfortable, otherwise conditions remain unchanged."

The report was signed by Lord Dawson of Penn and Sir Stanley Bruce.

LONDON, Dec. 4.—King George was holding his own today as reports were taken to the public by the king in his behalf by a committee of physicians.

The king was well enough to permit the meeting of the privy council to be held at 10:30 p.m. today, as was the case on Monday.

These nominated by His Majesty for the summing up and holding of the privy council on behalf of the king were Queen Mary, the Prince of Wales, the Duke of York, the Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord Chancellor and the prime minister.

Lord General Curzon, during the afternoon, the five physicians who have attended His Majesty held a general conference in the morning and during the day, the king's condition was reported to the public.

His Majesty passed a quiet morning, though the temperature is now 100.2. The slight improvement in condition, however, is not sufficient to justify the king's condition as being better.

The bulletin was the first to be signed by all five physicians who have attended His Majesty since the king's illness began.

It was authoritatively stated at the palace that the reason for the visit of the five doctors was because it was considered desirable to review the whole case with regard to the king's condition.

The last general review of the case was on November 26, when Dr. Curzon was present.

Let's Get In Line

ON Monday next Edmonton ratepayers will be called upon to vote on bylaws regarding the expenditure of some $511,000.

This is a time of great development in western Canada. A big industrial movement to the west is taking place. The eyes of the whole American continent are turned in this direction, and if Edmonton is to receive a share of the benefit which undoubtedly will accrue to this section of the Dominion, the ratepayers must be prepared to keep abreast of the times, and to do their part in building up a city which will appeal alike to the industrialist and to the home owner and prospective settler.

WINNIPEG recently passed bylaws totalling $650,000. Calgary shortly voting on expenditures of over $2,000,000. Saskatoon and Regina are facing big expenditures with equanimity and confidence. The whole West is moving forward, and Edmonton must get in line with the general advance. We cannot afford to lag behind.

None of the bylaws being submitted have been hastily brought on. The whole situation has been canvassed, and the studied opinion of the mayor, commissioners, council, and city officials, is that these proposed expenditures are absolutely necessary.

A Chamber of Commerce, and other civic and semi-civic organizations are endeavoring to foster a spirit of civic pride in Edmonton. This would be a fine opportunity for those organizations and the various service clubs of the city to get behind the bylaws and see that they are passed. Meetings of all these organizations are being held at some time during the present week. The bylaws are being voted on next Monday. It is a glorious opportunity for those heading the different organizations to line up their members in support of something worth while for Edmonton.

Pass the bylaws!

Trying the electors to grant him a reversal of confidence and an opportunity to continue his policy of city improvement, Mayor A. G. G. Bury declared the initial campaign meeting for materially candidates in block, across school Monday night.

While he admitted his opponent, Ald. C. Bingham, a member of the city council, the mayor questioned his motives in seeking the office. He said the electors had given him in order to let him know that there was no real issue at stake.

"The night session there was something of a mistake in the present administration in order for him to take the case and put it to the electors," Bury declared.

Despite cold weather and snow, considerable work is being done by the department of public works on highways throughout Alberta, according to H. O. McPherson, minister of public works. Graveling is being pushed ahead on the Lethbridge-Medicine Hat road, and it is expected that by the end of the week the road will be open to traffic. Work has commenced on the two and one-half mile extension to complete the Crow's Nest highway. Young Stribling Picked By Tex Rickard As Next Heavyweight Champion

Review of Sport

By Reg Hammond

The 1928-29 season amateur hockey season will be ushered in tonight at the Varsity Palace when the St. Lawrence's Superstars clash with the Eels. Local followers of the winter sport have been looking forward to the opening and indications are that there will be a large crowd on hand to see the teams do battle.

The outcome of the dominant rivalry fight between Reginald Bickler and Hamilton Tiger came as no surprise to Canadian football enthusiasts on west, but the failure of the western champions to score a single point against the easterners proved to be a hard pill to swallow. Rough league winners had secured the title to the Janesville, but they had looked for a much closer score.

Hamilton proved to be real champions. They displayed their prowess in all departments of the game, and the brilliant work of Herb Welch and "Pop" Leaday was more experienced line of the westerners proved to be no match for the better players in hand and they never got close enough to the Bickler goal line to be much of a serious threat.

Although heavy, the western champions were by no means unskilled. They fought with a grace and the brilliant work of Herb Welch and "Pop" Leaday was more experienced line of the westerners proved to be no match for the better players in hand and they never got close enough to the Bickler goal line to be much of a serious threat.

Instead of returning Reginald Bickler, the amateur champion, to the United Kingdom to compete in the Gold Cup classic next year.
